Dearest Hubert,

Jan. 23, 1944

Received your X-mail today. Certainly were happy to hear from you. I didn't think we would hear from you quite so soon.

We are so glad you didn't get sea-sick.

Carolyn is here. She wasn't feeling well yesterday, so they kept her home. She is going home with us tonight. Tommie is the night I have to play for the league. Oh brother!!!

Loew is cutting wood. Martin is helping him.

Did you know Marilyn had the chicken pop. We are afraid Carolyn will take them.

Loew has heard from Melvin. He is somewhere on the West Coast. So are the Halle boys.

Mrs. Wendler's funeral was great. It certainly was a large one.

One certainly can't write much on these X-mails. I guess I'll just have to write two of them.

I wonder whether you have gotten her other letters. With all my love, Evelyn
