Dearest Hubbie,

Boy! I've kinda been slipping on letter writing haven't I? Well, I'm sorry, honey.

I don't believe I ever mentioned anything about those wooden shoes you sent me. I haven't received them yet. But thanks just the same. It's so sweet of you even to remember me. When you have so many other things to occupy your time.

Evelyn Manning just informed me a short time ago that both Eugene and I are suppose to help scrub church tomorrow. Won't that sound interesting? And I had planned to sew all day.

Alvin & Mr. Nelson went on business to Joplin & Diamond Alvin found out about his binds. He got it & also some letters to me. <sup>do do</sup> rims. You probably know more about this than I do. I mean about the rims & wheels and so forth, they didn't get home until late. It is about 9 o'clock now and we haven't had supper.

They haven't heard from Verne for almost two weeks now.

David is writing you a letter.
Do you want me to enclose it?

I hear Karen is crying.

Alice is cutting out a dress for Karen. She finished one today.

Mrs. Nelson spent the day here. I ironed practically all day. Certainly am glad that's out of the way. But surely wish I didn't have to scrub tomorrow.
Guess I shouldn't complain. But It messed one's week up somewhat.

Enjoyed your letter written Mar 10.
Glad you're getting more training.
I will enclose some stationery & some of love & kisses

I addressed this I don't know if you don't have to write all your
