

March 29, 1945

Dearest Lubbie,

How's my little "honey boy"?
We've certainly been thinking & praying for you.

Haven't heard from you all week. Hope we hear tomorrow.

Just found out Ferner is with the 1st army.

Found out thru "Arkie" that Trapatin is in 7th army so think you're in same.

Finally persuaded Lora to write you a few lines.

Had a real nice birthday.
Came home from Alvin's Pies afternoon and have been home since. Got $5 from Alvin & Alice a cute hair band from Elda & Al.
Some Evening in Paris perfume from your "honey bunch". A dollar from the folks. Some panties from Martin & Milda.

Renie's writing Mel. I think he's on the move, too. She hasn't heard from him all week, either. Bye the bye, what's the matter with this mail situation?

Tomorrow is Good Friday.
My how we all wish you could be back here with us. It's beginning to seem like ages since I've seen you, dearest.

May God soon grant us victory. Hope you have received your prayer book & testament.
And have you received any packages as yet?

Certainly wish some packages would get to you before too much longer. Haven't received my wooden slates.

May God protect you always. oodles and gobs
of Love
of 'Eve