Dearest Hubbie,

You'd think that after I hadn't written for a couple of days that I'd really know some news. But that's not the case here.

We did get the church all scrubbed. And now we're just waiting for you to come and get married. So he. It really did look nice when it was completed. Even helped decorate some for Palm Sunday and Easter. Certainly wish you could be here for Easter. I think that is always such a joyous occasion. Especially when it's so springy & nice. I mean the weather, as it is now.

Nelson's Martins, & Alvins will all be at our house for dinner Sun. That's the day Karen is to be baptized.

I guess it will be a big day for us all. Certainly hope Alice gets to feeling better. She's been running a temperature of 101.
She's been in bed practically all day.

I washed & scrubbed floors cooked meals besides the dozen of other things. I believe a nice bed would look good.
You're probably thinking the same thing eh?
Waynes sounds better over there. I just knew it would take you to get them out of the way. How long have you

Alvin is coming and since I don't know any news I'll just call this good for tonight.

Take good care of yourself. And have you made Colonel yet? ? ?

May God continue to bestow
His blessings upon you &
all our men in service.

Wishing you a very happy & pleasant Easter, brother dear. Love & kisses from
Dora
