My Dear Brother,

March 27-28th, 1946

How would you ^{like} v-mail for a change?
I think maybe I can get that much written before Lorne and Evelyn come in from doing the chores. Guess what I'm going to League meeting with them to-night. I'm getting young again, or am I just trying to be??
Well anyway the young ones want me to go. This is where Bible Study night - so I know it is worthwhile going. I'm sorry son, I didn't get this finished last night, and I slept too late this morning. Yes, you guessed it - they kept me out too late - ha ha. Well that we have finally found out that Chap. 13 is in the 7th and are satisfied that you are with some.
We trust you are still coming along in good health and spirits. May God grant it.
Since I'm the only member of the family writing you to-night I get to tell you that Chester Boucher has sold his farm to an Iowa - I can't figure what man from Iowa wants with that place. Dad thinks his alfalfa field sold the place for Chester. Isn't that just like dad? ha ha. Well along with hearty Easter wishes and loving thoughts, Lorne
